2012-13 Officers of Administration Council Mission and Goals

The mission of the OA Council is to build community among the UO's diverse range of administrative professionals and to support this community by facilitating communication, identifying and addressing pertinent issues, acting as a liaison with central administration, raising the professional profile of OAs, and creating opportunities for collegiality.

2012-13 Short-Term Goals

1. Review, clarify and update our website
2. Strengthen relationships with senior university leadership
   a. Meet with new leadership (Michael Gottfredson, Doug Blandy, Yvette Alex-Assensoh, Melissa Woo)
   b. Maintain relationship with existing senior leadership
3. Create mechanism for information gathering sessions with UO units

2012-2015 Medium-Range Goals

1. Continue to work with OA policy review committee
2. Identify issues that OAs would like to be looked into in the coming years.
3. Develop metrics to identify the progress of the OAC in meeting its goals
4. Raise our profile across campus so more OAs are aware of the OAC as a resource and take advantage of the networking opportunities it provides
5. Explore ways in which we may promote the need to address equity issues at UO (to include sick leave, informal complaints/conflict guidelines, staffing levels and pay.)

Long-Term Goals

1. Revisit and update our mission as needed
2. Build community among OAs
3. Advocate for the OA community
4. Self-study
